SEPTEMBER 2014

A Note from the President ...

Summer is over...

Hope you had lots of time to relax if you weren't busy cutting and gluing stuff! The CAA board is ready and raring to go with programs, workshops and exhibitions. We also have some updates and changes, so read on...

We will begin our new collage fiscal year with a fascinating guest artist at our first general meeting on Friday, September 26 (see details below). Make sure you pay your member dues now as they become officially delinquent September 1. Memberships will still be accepted, however, through October 1, 2014. A member directory will be published this winter -- so pay your dues by October 1 to remain on the active member roster and be included in the directory! (You may go to the CAA website to pay via Paypal, or bring the membership form and check to the September meeting.)

An exciting and "luminous" workshop is scheduled for October 29. Our own Rachelle Mark will be leading participants in the use of encaustics in mixed-media art. And since I'm sure you're anxious to show your talents, mark your calendars for CAA's member juried exhibit "A Material World" at the Burbank CA Creative Arts Center in February 2015. Start gathering materials to create your own expression of your artistic world! Prospectus coming soon.

Maybe our biggest news is our meeting location change! Beginning January 23, 2015, CAA general member meetings will be held at the San Fernando Valley Arts & Cultural Center in Tarzana CA. This is an exciting, new, modern and welcoming arts center opened and operated by the San Fernando Valley Arts Alliance. The venue offers meeting, performance, exhibition, and workshop space.

The CAA board is still looking for a publicity chairperson and newsletter editor. Marian Devney is holding down the fort, and doing a wonderful job, but if you have skills and interest, please contact us.

Looking forward to seeing you in September!

TIME IS RUNNING OUT!
RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP NOW

Current CAA member benefits include: creative camaraderie; a listing in the member roster and a link to your artist website on CAA's webpage; eligibility to enter member-only exhibits; attend program meetings and guest artist presentations at no cost; participation in workshops, field trips and other CAA events at a discount, and more. The $50 annual dues may be paid by check mailed to CAA or with credit/debit card via PayPal. Membership Application and Renewal Form can be found here and on the CAA website.

As a reminder, CAA Bylaws (Article III, Section 2) state that dues become delinquent if not paid by September 1, and that a CAA membership is considered terminated if dues have been delinquent for 30 days (by October 1, 2014). Don't miss out! Renew now!

SEPTEMBER GUEST ARTIST

MATJAMES METSON is an accomplished and intuitive self-taught assemblage artist. He rescues images and found objects and uses them to create new and intricately hand-crafted assemblage and collage structures. Metson combines found items with any number of elements - chairs, cigar boxes, keys, knives, mousetraps, nails, pencils, toys, wood, etc. - to tell his haunting tales.

A native of a small town in upstate New York, Metson is the son of free-spirited, artistic, teaching parents. He was raised in a creative environment and lived a somewhat nomadic lifestyle. He lived nearly two decades in New Orleans, honing his skills in an antebellum atmosphere. Then Hurricane Katrina struck and he lost his entire studio and all of his art in the disaster. Metson moved to Los Angeles to rebuild his life and has lived there for nearly a decade now.

Metson's art is complex, elegant, refined and exquisitely constructed. He strives toward complexity and challenge vs. perfection and aims to challenge not just himself but also the viewer. Metson's goal is to create sculpture that uses architecture, geometry and craftsmanship in balance with fine art.

Matjames Metson has received wide acclaim for his work and has exhibited in numerous galleries and museums. His presentation is not to be missed!

CAA WORKSHOP: ENCAUSTICS

Get ready for a "luminous" new workshop on Wednesday, October 29, 10am - 4pm! Meet new art buddies as we connect with each other in this exciting learning experience.

THE USE OF ENCAUSTIC IN MIXED-MEDIA ART is an exciting, informational and fun workshop conducted by award-winning artist Rachelle Mark. Encaustic is an ancient process that has seen a revival due to the work of artists Diego Rivera and Jasper Johns, among others. Discover its history and learn how to use encaustic to enhance your artwork. We will learn about and experiment with the encaustic process as we focus on applying it to our final project, the human figure.

Space is limited, so don't think twice! More info to come. Feel free to contact Rachelle with any questions.

NO BOUNDARIES: AN OPEN JURIED EXHIBITION

The San Fernando Valley Arts and Cultural Center in Southern California announces a juried exhibit open to all artists who can hand-deliver their work. Artwork will be juried using digital images (jpgs) through Online Juried Shows. Submitted artwork should reflect the artist's interpretation of the theme "No Boundaries." Use your creative passport to wander through new artistic territories.
